Why are more people not talking about this?

The answer has to do with politics and Big Pharma's influence over "medicine" and "public health." The things that are true rarely make headlines, at least in the mainstream, which lies dominate the news cycle – and because of this, there would seem to be no limit to the number of new bioweapons the regime is planning to unleash.

mRNA nanoparticle technologies must be STOPPED or else humanity is doomed

Sadly, most people still do not even realize that we are all under attack by powerful entities with the ability to disguise their bioweapons as "medicine." Even though millions upon millions of people are either seriously injured or dead because of the covid jab variety, many are still unable to put two and two together to realize what is really going on.

"You can't win a war if don't know what weapons are being used against you," reported The Kingston Report.

There is a false sense of safety for the time being – a sense that the worst is behind us, and that the best is yet to come. It is all an illusion, though, as the globalists have a lot more in store for the human herd.

The Kingston Report is on a mission to at least get the covid jab bioweapons out of local communities by enabling law enforcement to remove them by force. The group that runs the page put together a DEMAND letter stating that every law enforcement authority in America has the "FDA clinical trials, U.S. government data, and real-world evidence have demonstrated that mRNA nanoparticle injections cause clinically significant increases in mild-to-moderate disease, serious diseases, disabilities, hospitalizations, and death within days, weeks and / or months of receiving COVID-19 mRNA nanoparticle injections in formerly healthy infants, children, and adults."

Take some time to read through the letter in its entirety, and consider sending it to your local law enforcement agencies for their consideration.
